

PURATATTVA NO. 4 (1970-71)

V.D. KRISHNASWAMI COMMEMORATION VOLUME

CONTENTS	Page
Editorial	(b)
V.D. Krishnaswami K.V. Soundara Rajan	(i)
ARTICLES
Perhaps the Earliest Ploughed Field so far Excavated Anywhere in the World B.B. Lal	1
Lal brings out an excavated ploughed field having furrow-marks on a grid pattern, belonging to the Early/Formative Harappan phase at Kalibangan
Gulf of Oman: The Original Home of Indian Megaliths S.P. Gupta	4
Gupta discusses the possibility of a homeland for Indian megaliths based on a study of cultural material and possible trade routes
Excavations at Chirand: New Light on the Indian Neolithic Culture-Complex B.S. Verma	19
Verma sheds light on a full fledged Neolithic culture, marked by an impressive collection of bone tools, beads, terracotta and ceramics
Some Aspects of the Chalcolithic Cultures of Central India M.K. Dhavalikar	24
Dhavalikar discusses on Chalcolithic Central India along with some new aspects of Malwa culture
Mammalian Fossil Fauna: A most modern tool for dating the Pleistocene deposit E. Khan	31
Khan informs on how mammalian palaeontology helps in determining chronology of Pleistocene deposits
An Appraisal of the Protohistoric Problems of the Ganga-Yamuna Doab R.C. Gaur	42
Gaur contemplates on the Late Harappan-PGW problems of the Ganga Yamuna Doab
NOTES &amp; NEWS
A Bone and Antler Industry from Allahapur K.N. Dikshit	51
Excavations of a brick apsidal temple at Banavasi M. Seshadri	56
Explorations of Prehistoric Sites in District Bijapur R.S. Pappu	58

BOOK REVIEWS

S.C. Malik, The Indian Civilisation: The Formative Period 63
D.P. Agrawal

K.S. Ramachandran, A Bibliography on Indian Megaliths 65
B.M. Pande

D.P. Agrawal, The Copper-Bronze Age in India 67
Krishna Deva

Readings in Indian Archaeology 68

The Indus Valley Culture (Palaeobotanical Study of Climatic Change)
Gurdip Singh